

I would like to see more traffic, weather, and other local programming offered on my satellite radio. I don't think the government should regulate business in this manner. Let the free enterprise system work.